

SUBSCRIPTION RATES.

One copy, one year.....$ 1.50
One copy, six months.....1.00
One copy, three months......50

No deduction from these rates under any circumstances.
As we are compelled by law to pay postage in advance on papers sent outside of Ohio county, we are forced to require payment on subscriptions in advance.
All papers will be promptly stopped at the expiration of the time authorized for it.
All letters on business must be addressed to JOHN P. HARRIS, Publisher.

COUNTY DIRECTORY.

CIRCUIT COURT.

Hon. James Stuart, Judge, Owensboro.
Hon. Jos. Hayslett, Clerk, Hartford.
A. L. Morton, Master Commissioner, Hartford.
T. J. Smith, Sheriff, Hartford.
E. L. Wise, Jailor, Hartford.

Court begins on the second Mondays in May and November, and continues three weeks each term.

COUNTY COURT.

Hon. W. F. Gregory, Judge, Hartford.
Capt. Sam. K. Cox, Clerk, Hartford.
J. P. Sanderford, Attorney, Hartford.
Court begins on the first Monday in every month.

QUARTERLY COURT.

Begin on the 1st Mondays in January, April, July and October.

COURT OF CLAIMS.

Begin on the first Monday in October.

OTHER COUNTY OFFICERS.

J. J. Leach, Assessor, Cromwell.
J. Smith Pittsburg, Surveyor, Sulphur Springs.
J. H. Russell, Coroner, Sulphur Springs.
W. L. Rowe, School Commissioner, Hartford.

MAGISTRATES' COURTS.

Caney district, No. 1.—P. H. Allford, Justice of the Peace, P. O. White Run. Courts held March 6, June 17, September 4, and December 18. E. F. Telford, Justice of the Peace, P. O. Roshie. Courts held March 18, June 5, September 18, and December 4. W. W. Eick, Constable, P. O. Roshie.

Cool Springs district No. 2.—A. N. Brown, Justice of the Peace, P. O. Rockport. Courts held March 5, June 15, September 2, and December 16. D. J. Wilson, Justice of the Peace, P. O. Rockport. Courts held March 15, June 2, September 16 and December 22. Isaac Brown, Constable, P. O. Rockport.

Center town district No. 3.—W. P. Risher, J. P. P. O. Point Pleasant. Courts held March 31, June 14, September 28, and December 12. A. T. Coffman, J. P. P. O. Cevalro. Courts held March 16, June 28, September 15, and December 20. S. L. Fulkerson, Constable, P. O. Hoger Falls.

Bell's Store district No. 4.—Ben Newton, J. P. P. O. Buford. Courts held March 11, June 23, September 11, and December 27. S. W. Seward, J. P. P. O. Hartford. Courts held March 24, June 10, September 25, and December 11. Eli Chian, Constable, P. O. Buford.

Fordville district No. 5.—C. W. R. Cobb, J. P. P. O. Fordville. Courts held March 8, June 19, September 8, and December 22. J. L. Fenton, J. P. P. O. Fordville. Courts held March 22, June 7, September 22, and December 8. J. L. Harder, Constable, P. O. Fordville.

Ellis district No. 6.—J. P. H. Hayslett, J. P. P. O. Whitesville, Davison county. Courts held March 9, June 21, September 9, and December 23. James Miller, J. P. P. O. Whitesville, Davison county. Courts held March 21, June 9, September 23, and December 7. James C. W. Phillips, Deputy Sheriff, P. O. Whitesville, Davison county. Courts held March 23, June 6, September 20, and December 4.

Hartford district No. 7.—J. P. C. Cioyer, J. P. P. O. Beaver Dam. Courts held March 13, June 26, September 14, and December 20. A. B. Bennett, J. P. P. O. Hartford. Courts held March 25, June 12, September 27, and December 13. W. L. Maddox, Constable, P. O. Melleney.

Cromwell district No. 8.—Samuel Austin, J. P. P. O. Cromwell. Courts held March 22, June 16, September 29, and December 19. J. P. O. Cromwell. Courts held March 17, June 30, September 13, and December 27. B. S. Hughes, Constable, P. O. Cromwell.

Hartford District No. 9.—T. L. Allen, J. P. P. O. Hartford. Courts held March 14, June 21, September 15, and December 28. John M. Leach, J. P. P. O. Beaver Dam. Courts held March 28, June 15, September 28, and December 14. H. J. Waltinghill, Constable, P. O. Hartford.

Sulphur Springs district No. 10.—R. G. Wedding, J. P. P. O. Sulphur Springs. Courts held March 21, June 6, September 21, and December 7. J. A. Bennett, J. P. P. O. Sulphur Springs. Courts held March 7, June 20, September 24, and December 10. A. A. Asst, Constable, P. O. Sulphur Springs.

Barlett's district No. 11.—W. H. Cummins, J. P. P. O. Hartford. Courts held March 10, June 25, September 12, and December 26. Jackson Yates, J. P. P. O. Buford. Courts held March 25, June 29, September 26, and December 12. E. H. Burton, Constable, P. O. Buford.

POLICE COURTS.

Hartford.—F. P. Morgan, Judge, second Monday in January, April, July and October.—J. N. Wise, Marshal.

Beaver Dam.—E. W. Cooper, Judge, first Saturday in January, April, July and October.—W. H. Blankenship, Marshal.

Cromwell.—A. P. Montague, Judge, second Saturday in January, April, July and October.—H. P. Wise, Marshal.

Cevalro.—W. D. Barnard, Judge, last Saturday in March, June, September and December.—Daniel Tichenor, Marshal.

Hamilton.—J. W. Lankford, Judge, post-office address Melleney, courts held third Saturday in January, April, July and October.—A. J. Carman, Marshal, post-office address Melleney.

Rockport.—James Tinsley, Judge, Mansfield Williams, Marshal. Courts held—

I. O. O. F.

HARTFORD LODGE No. 158.
Meets in Taylor Hall, in Hartford, Ky., on the Second and Fourth Saturday evenings in each month. The fraternity are cordially invited to visit us when convenient for them to do so.

L. HARRIS, N. G. W. D. PHIPPS, Sec.
B. P. BERRYMAN, D. G. M.

I. O. G. T.

HARTFORD LODGE No. 12.
Meets in Taylor Hall, Hartford, Ky., every Thursday evening. A cordial invitation is extended to members of the Order to visit us, and all such will be made welcome.

THOMAS TAYLOR, W. C. T.
GROSS B. WILLIAMS, W. Sec.
MISS ANNIE TRACY, L. D.

A. Y. M.

HARTFORD LODGE, NO. 156.
Meets first Monday night in each month.

JOHN P. TRACY, W. M.
SAM E. HILL, Secy.

R. A. M.

KEYSTONE CHAPTER, NO. 110.
Meets second Monday night in each month.

M. E. SAM E. HILL, H. P.
Comp. H. WEINHEIMER, Sec.

THE HARTFORD HERALD.

"I COME, THE HERALD OF A NOISY WORLD, THE NEWS OF ALL NATIONS LUMBERING AT MY BACK."

VOL. 2.

HARTFORD, OHIO COUNTY, KY., APRIL 19, 1876.

NO. 15.

ADVERTISING RATES.

Squares	1 Week	2 Weeks	1 Month	3 Months	6 Months	1 Year
One.	1.00	1.50	2.50	3.50	7.50	15.00
Two.	1.75	2.50	4.00	5.50	10.00	18.00
Three.	2.50	3.50	5.00	6.50	12.00	22.00
Four.	3.00	4.00	5.50	7.00	13.00	24.00
5 Col.	4.00	5.00	6.50	8.00	14.00	26.00
6 Col.	4.50	5.50	7.00	8.50	15.00	28.00
7 Col.	5.00	6.00	7.50	9.00	16.00	30.00
8 Col.	5.50	6.50	8.00	9.50	17.00	32.00
9 Col.	6.00	7.00	8.50	10.00	18.00	34.00
10 Col.	6.50	7.50	9.00	10.50	19.00	36.00

For shorter time, at proportionate rates.
One inch of space constitutes a square.

The Local Editor.

The following is borrowed, and it is the best we ever had a local editor lend us:

"If a man buys a new buggy, or if his cow can bawl three times without winking, the local is expected to proclaim it with a grand flourish. If he starts a two-penny business, his first thought is to bribe the local with a five-cent cigar to write up a five-dollar puff. Indeed, he thinks it is a mission of the local to make his fortune for him by 'free blowing.' He will take the local to one side and point out the superior qualities of a rat-terrier dog, and cooly ask him to 'give him a hoist.' He don't care anything about it, only Spriggins has a dog that he thinks is a buster, and some of 'em wanted him to 'put in' just to 'take the conceit out of Spriggins.' Everybody wants to 'put in.' They are the 'GREAT I AM,' but no one says—

"Here, local, put yourself inside of this new snit of clothes, or throw yourself outside of this oyster stew, or stuff this watch into your pocket." Oh, no, of course not; that would cost something. The shoe is on the other foot, you see. The local is expected to know everything about other people's business, and is expected to show up the actors of every family broil in town. If the vile tongue of scandal finds a victim, people wonder why he don't run about with his note-book and gather the vituperative bits of slander for his paper. If he steps into a billiard hall he is requested to make a note of the astonishing fact that Bill Tompkins has made a run of eleven points. When the minstrel troupe arrives in town, the agent immediately rushes into the printing office, and, calling for the local, he slips three or four tickets in his hand, and whispers—"draw us a big house! Put it in strong!" and patting him patronizingly on the shoulder, the agent admits the inferiority of the troupe, but we are not to "let on." It is no sin for the local to lie.

To please the lecturer, the local is forced to sit two mortal hours to hear him through an insipid discourse so that he can "write him up." And so it goes. All are anxious to appear favorably in print, but few are willing to pay for it. The local's time is worth nothing but to bother his head writing puffs for ambitious persons. It don't cost him anything to live. He never eats or drinks, or travels, and money is no use to him. Put it in! Put it in!!

Breaking Hearts.

Do not laugh at the drunken man reeling through the street, however ludicrous the sight may be—just stop to think. He is going home to some tender heart that will throbb with intense agony—some doting mother, perhaps, who will grieve over the downfall of her once sinless boy; or it may be a fond wife, whose heart will almost burst with grief as she views the destruction of her idol, or it may be a loving sister who will shed bitter tears over the degradation of her brother, shorn of his manliness and self-respect. Rather drop a tear in silent sympathy with those hearts so keenly sensitive and tender, yet so proud and loyal that they cannot accept sympathy tendered them either in word, look or act, although it might fall upon their crushed and wounded hearts as refreshingly as the summer dew upon the withering plant.

A Fort Madison man went into his cow stable the other day, and, by mistake, mixed her up a nice mash in a box full of saw dust instead of bran. The cow, merely supposing the hard times had come and they were all going to economize, meekly, ate her supper, and that man never discovered his mistake until the next morning, when he milked that cow, and she let down half a gallon of turpentine, a quart of shoe pegs, and a bundle of laths.—[Burlington Hawkeye.

"So sweet to sit at eventide
Some willin' female form beside,
And love like purr and snicker;
To feel, whatever devilish arts
Are sending other kindred hearts,
You two are growing thicker.

"That clock," stranger," said a Michigan farmer, "was the best kind of a clock up to six months ago, when my daughter began to have beaux, and now the blamed thing is always two hours slow."

Many a lady in Washington has come to want—come to want diamond ear-rings.

IN MEMORIAM.

Jessie McHenry Taylor.

Touch the harp gently,
Let soft numbers swell
For one whom we cherished Too fondly, too well.
The casket is broken,
The bright gem is given,
But it glows in a setting Far brighter in Heaven.—
Oh, touch the harp gently,
For gentle was she Whose voice now is swelling Love's pure melody.

Touch the harp gently:
No note loud nor shrill
Should fall on the ear,
But our heart strings should thrill
With sorrowful tenderness.
Tender and true
Were her feelings for all,
And her love was so pure,
As pure as the crystal
And true as tried steel.
With a warm, trusting heart
For life's woes or life's weal.

Touch the harp gently;
Her life's summer day,
Like the soft hues of summer,
Has faded away.
As bright as the dawn
She arose on our sight,
But soon, ah! too soon,
The dawn closed in night.
How dark were the darkness,
Did not hope light the gloom,
And dispel the dream shadows
That lurk round the tomb.

Touch the harp gently:
Even now while we weep,
Her purified spirit
May gloriously watch keep;
And such love as she bore us,
While lingering here,
Should never be dimmed
By a sigh or a tear;
But as a bright star,
Gleam in beauty above,
Gently guiding our souls
To a haven of love. Rosina.

Hartford, April 15, 1876.

Membranous Croup.

BY MARK TWAIN.

Well, to go back where I was before I digressed to explain to you how that frightful and incurable disease, membranous croup, was ravaging the town and driving all mothers mad with terror, I called Mrs. McWilliams' attention to little Penelope, and said: "Darling, I wouldn't let that child be chewing that pine stick, if I were you."

"Precious, where is the harm in it?" said she, but at the same time preparing to take away the stick—for women cannot receive even the most palpably judicious suggestion without arguing it; that is, married women.

"Love, it is notorious that pine is the least nutritious wood that a child can eat."

My wife's hand paused in the act of taking the stick, and returned itself to her lap; she bridled perceptibly, and said: "Hubby, you know better than that. You know you do. Doctors all say that turpentine in pine wood is good for weak back and kidneys."

"Ah! I was under a misapprehension. I did not know that the child's kidneys and spine were affected, and that the family physician had recommended—"

"Who said that the child's spine and kidneys were affected?"

"My love, you intimated it."

"The Idea! I never intimated anything of the kind."

"Why, my dear, it hasn't been two minutes since you said—"

"Bother what I said! I don't care what I did say. There isn't any harm in a child's chewing a bit of pine stick if she wants to, and you know it perfectly well. And she shall chew it, too! So there, now!"

"Say no more, my dear. I now see the force of your reasoning, and I will go and order two or three cords of the best pine wood to-day. No child of mine shall want while I live—"

"Oh, please go along to your office, and let me have some peace. A body can never make the simplest remark but you must take it up and go to arguing, and arguing, till you don't know what you are talking about, and you never do."

"Very well, it shall be as you say. But there is a want of logic in your last remark, which—"

However, she was gone with a flourish before I could finish, and had taken the child with her. That night, at dinner, she confronted me with a face as white as a sheet.

"Oh, Mortimer, there's another! Little Georgie Gordon is taken."

"Membranous croup?"

"Membranous croup."

"Is there any hope for him?"

"None in the wide world. Oh, what is to become of us?"

By and by our nurse brought in our Penelope to say good night, and offer the customary prayer at mother's knee. In the midst of "Now, I lay me down to sleep," she gave a slight cough. My wife fell back like one stricken with death. But next moment she was up and running away with the activeness which terror inspires.

She commanded that the child's crib be removed from the nursery to our bed room; and she went along to see the order executed. She took me with her, of course. We got matters arranged with speed. A cot bed was put up in my wife's dressing room for the nurse. But now Mrs. McWilliams said we were too far away from the other baby, and what if he were to have the symptoms in the night?—and she blanched again, poor thing.

We then restored the crib and the nurse to the nursery, and put up a bed for ourselves in a room adjoining. Presently, however, Mrs. McWilliams said: "Suppose the baby should catch it from Penelope?" This thought struck a new panic to her heart, and the tribe of us could not ret the crib out of the nursery again fast enough to satisfy my wife, though she assisted in her own person, and well nigh pulled the crib to pieces in her frantic hurry.

We moved down stairs, but there was no place to stow the nurse, and Mrs. McWilliams said the nurse's experience would be an inestimable help. So we returned, bag and baggage, to our own bed room once more, and felt a great gladness, like storm buffeted birds that have found their nests again.

Mrs. McWilliams sped to the nursery to see how things were going on there. She was back in a moment with a new dread. She said: "What can make the baby sleep so?"

I said: "Why, my darling, baby always sleeps like a graven image."

"I know, I know; but there's something peculiar about his sleep now. He seems to—he seems to breathe so regularly, Oh, this is dreadful!"

"But, my dear, he always breathes regularly."

"Oh, I know it, but there's something dreadful about it now. His nurse is too young and inexperienced. Maria shall stay there with her and be on hand if anything happens."

"That is a good idea, but who will help you?"

"You can help me all I want. I wouldn't allow anybody to do anything but myself anyhow, at such a time as this."

I said I would feel mean to lie abed and sleep, and leave her to watch and toil over our little patient all the weary night. But she reconciled me to it. So old Maria departed and took up her ancient quarters in the nursery. Penelope coughed twice in her sleep.

"Oh, why don't the doctor come? Mortimer, this room is too warm. Turn off the register—quick?"

I shut it off, glancing at the thermometer at the same time, and wondering to myself if 70 was too warm for a sick child.

The coachman arrived from down town now with news that the physician was ill and confined to his bed. Mrs. McWilliams turned a dead eye upon me, and said in a dead voice, "There is providence in it. It is fore-ordained. He never was sick before. Never. We have not been living as we ought to live. Mortimer, time and time again I have told you so. Now you see the result. Our child will never get well. Be thankful if you can forgive yourself."

I said, without intent to hurt, but with heedless choice of words, that I could not see that we had been living such an abandoned life.

"Mortimer! Do you want to bring the judgment upon our baby, too?"

Then she began to cry, but suddenly exclaimed, "The doctor must have sent medicines!"

I said, "Certainly they are here. I was only waiting for you to give me a chance."

"Well, do give them to me! Don't you know that every moment is precious now? But what was the use in sending medicines when he knows that the disease is incurable?"

I said that while there was life there was hope.

"Hope! Mortimer, you know no more what you are talking about than the child unborn. If you would—As I live, the direction say give one teaspoonful once an hour! Once an hour! as if we had a whole year before us to save the child in! Mortimer, please hurry. Give the poor perishing thing a tablespoonful and try to be quick."

"What, my dear, a tablespoonful might—"

"Don't drive me frantic? * * * There, there, there, my precious, my own; it's nasty, bitter stuff, but it's good for Nelly—good for mother's precious darling; and it will make her well. There, there, there, put the little head upon mamma's breast and go to sleep—Oh, I know she can't live till morning? Mortimer, a tablespoonful every half hour—Oh, the child needs belladonna, too! I know she does—and acovite. Get them Mortimer. Now don't me have my way. You know nothing about these things."

We now went to bed, placing the crib close to my wife's pillow. All this turmoil had worn upon me, and within two minutes I was something more than fast asleep. Mrs. McWilliams roused me: "Darling, is that register turned on?"

"No."

"I thought as much. Please turn it on at once. This room is cold."

I turned it on, and presently fell asleep again. I was roused once more.

"Dearie, would you mind moving the crib to your side of the bed? It is nearer the register."

I moved it, but had a collision with the rug, and woke up the child. I dozed off once more, while my wife cooed the sufferer. But in a little while these words came murmuring remotely through the fog of my drowsiness:

"Mortimer, if we only had some goose grease—will you ring?"

I climbed drowsily out, and stepped on a cat, which responded with a protest, and would have got a convincing kick for it, if a chair had not got it instead.

"Now, Mortimer, why do you want to turn up the gas and wake up the child again?"

"Because I want to see how much I am hurt, Caroline."

"Well, look at the chair, too—I have no doubt it is ruined. Poor cat, suppose you had—"

"Now, I am not going to suppose anything about the cat. It never would have occurred if Maria had been allowed to remain here and attend to these duties, which are in her line, and are not in mine."

"Now, Mortimer, I should think you would be ashamed to make a remark like that. It is a pity if you cannot do the few little things that I asked of you at such an awful time as this, when our child—"

"There, there, I will do anything you want. But I can't raise anybody with this bell. They're all gone to bed. Where is the goose grease?"

"On the mantelpiece in the nursery. If you'll step in there and speak to Maria—"

I fetched the goose grease and went to sleep again. Once more I was called.

"Mortimer, I so hate to disturb you, but the room is too cold for me to try to apply this stuff. Would you mind lighting the fire? It is all ready to touch a match to."

I dragged myself out and lit the fire, and then sat down disconsolate.

"Mortimer, don't sit there and catch your death of cold. Come to bed."

As I was stepping in, she said: "But wait a moment. Please give the child some of the medicine."

Which I did. It was a medicine which made a child more or less lively; so my wife made use of its waking interval to strip it and grease it all over with the goose oil. I was soon asleep once more, but once more I had to get up.

"Mortimer, I feel a draft. I feel it distinctly. There is nothing so bad for this disease as a draft. Please move the crib in front of the fire."

I did it, and collided with the rug again, which I threw into the fire.

Mrs. McWilliams sprang out of bed and rescued it, and we had some words. I had another trifling interval of sleep, and then got up, by request, and constructed a flax seed poultice. This was placed upon the child's breast, and left there to do its healing work.

A wood fire is not a permanent thing. I got up every twenty minutes and renewed ours, and this gave Mrs. McWilliams an opportunity to shorten the times of giving the medicines by ten minutes, which was a great satisfaction to her. Now and then, between times, I reorganized the flax seed poultices, and applied snuapisms and other blisters where unoccupied places could be found upon the child.

Well, toward morning the wood gave out, and my wife wanted me to go down in the cellar and get some more: "My dear, it is a laborious job, and the child must be nearly warm enough with her extra clothing. Now mightn't we put on another layer of polities and—"

I did not finish because I was interrupted. I lugged wood up from below for some little time, and then turned in and fell to snoring as only a man can whose soul is worn out.

Last, at broad daylight, I felt a grip on my shoulder that brought me to my senses suddenly. My wife was glaring down on me and gasping. As soon as she could command her tongue she said, "Its all over. All over! The child's perspiring! What shall we do?"

"Mercy, how you terrify me. I don't know what we ought to do. May be it we scraped her and put her in the draft again—"

"Oh, idiot! There is not a moment to lose. Go for the doctor. Tell

THE HERALD.

JOHN P. BARRETT, Editor.

HARTFORD, OHIO COUNTY, KY.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 10, 1876.

We invite attention to the announcement, in another column, of the candidacy of our popular and esteemed fellow citizen Judge W. F. Gregory, for the office of criminal judge of the 5th Judicial District. For the information of those who have no personal acquaintance with the Judge, or who do not know his antecedents, we would state that he is a graduate of the Kentucky Military Institute of the class of 1857, read law with the late Judge Thos. B. Monroe, and graduated in the law class of the Kentucky Military Institute in 1858, since which time he has been a diligent practitioner and student of his profession. His politics, Judge Gregory has all his life been a Democrat, but liberal and consistent in his political opinions. An attorney at law, Judge Gregory enjoys the confidence and esteem of the people at large of Ohio county, who he located in 1862, and in no less degree, that of his brethren at the bar as a judge he has proven himself honest and conservative, painstaking in laborious in preparing his judgment and, as an evidence of his competence as a judge, we may add that he is seldom reversed on appeal. As a lawyer he is competent, energetic and honest and as a man cultivated and genial. Inasmuch as Ohio county has never enjoyed the distinction of furnishing a Circuit or District judge, and as we now offer one in every way capable and worthy, we ask, and expect, that the electors of our sister counties in the district will yield Judge Gregory a cordial and hearty support. As for Ohio county we have no fears for the judge's claims, as they will be closely looked after here where he is so well known.

Federal troops are having great trouble on the Mexican border, and citizens are annoyed and night. The troops are using every effort to protect them, but it seems that nothing short of a war will stop these ravages.

The negro boy, who attempted rape upon a little girl in Boyle county a few days ago, and was in jail at Danville, an account of which is given in another part of this paper, was taken from jail by a mob on last Saturday night and hung.

A. T. Stewart, the great New York Merchant, died on the 10th inst., the advanced age of 81 years. He leaves no family except his wife, having died without issue, and leaves blood relations, he being the last of his race. His estate is estimated upwards of $50,000,000.

Latest News.

The Grand jury at Washington, indicted Gen. Babcock, Harrington, Whiteley, Benton, Milk Nettle, and Somerville for conspiracy in the safe-burglary conspiracy. Warrants were issued for the arrest of each, except General Babcock, who appeared and gave bail in the sum of $10,000, ex-Gov. A. R. Shepherd coming his security. It is understood that all except Babcock and Harrington will be used as witnesses, and that the indictments against those testifying will be nolle prosequed. There are rumors that Harrington cannot be found, and that he will seek to avoid arrest.

The Courier-Journal's special telegraphic correspondence from Washington Saturday night states that the committee on the whisky frauds has a copy in ex-Congressman Ford's handwriting of Ford's letter to President Grant, dated May 30, 1870, in which Ford says of Supervisor McDonald: "He is a man that the Republican papers denounce as being without sense, without truth and common honesty. I tell you this confidentially, having no doubt of its truth. We all hope you will satisfy yourself of the truth of it, if you have any doubts, and do yourself justice and the country a service by squelching him at once." And yet Grant, in giving his sworn testimony in defense of Babcock last month, stated that he had never been informed that McDonald's character was not good. Is this perjury in the chief magistrate? Any grand jury would find a true bill against an obscure citizen on such evidence for perjury.

Last week Gen. Patterson destroyed eight illicit distilleries, five in Henry county, Tenn., and three in Calloway county, Ky., and arrested five of their operators.

The emperor and empress of Brazil arrived at New York Saturday in the steamship Havellius.

Special Telegram to Courier-Journal. Washington, April 14.—The House committee on the Judiciary met this morning and considered the question of a proper return by the sergeant-at-arms to the court which has issued a writ of habeas corpus in the case of Hallet Kilbourne. Hallet Kilbourne is one of the most impudent and shameless of the ring variety, and the courts of the District are in full sympathy with the ring and with him.

The subcommittee, by two to one, reported a direction to the sergeant-at-arms not to produce the body of Kilbourne in court. There was considerable discussion, and numerous precedents were quoted on both sides. The majority report was adopted by a decided majority. Those voting aye were Messrs. Hinton, Ashe, Lord, Hurd, McCreary, Lawrence, and Hoar. The nays were Proctor Knott, Lynde and Frye. The committee will accordingly report a resolution to-morrow directing the sergeant-at-arms not to produce the body of Kilbourne in court. The majority report was adopted by a decided majority. Those voting aye were Messrs. Hinton, Ashe, Lord, Hurd, McCreary, Lawrence, and Hoar. The nays were Proctor Knott, Lynde and Frye. The committee will accordingly report a resolution to-morrow directing the sergeant-at-arms not to produce the body of Kilbourne in court.

The negro boy, who attempted rape upon a little girl in Boyle county a few days ago, and was in jail at Danville, an account of which is given in another part of this paper, was taken from jail by a mob on last Saturday night and hung.

A. T. Stewart, the great New York Merchant, died on the 10th inst., the advanced age of 81 years. He leaves no family except his wife, having died without issue, and leaves blood relations, he being the last of his race. His estate is estimated upwards of $50,000,000.

Latest News.

The Grand jury at Washington, indicted Gen. Babcock, Harrington, Whiteley, Benton, Milk Nettle, and Somerville for conspiracy in the safe-burglary conspiracy. Warrants were issued for the arrest of each, except General Babcock, who appeared and gave bail in the sum of $10,000, ex-Gov. A. R. Shepherd coming his security. It is understood that all except Babcock and Harrington will be used as witnesses, and that the indictments against those testifying will be nolle prosequed. There are rumors that Harrington cannot be found, and that he will seek to avoid arrest.

The Courier-Journal's special telegraphic correspondence from Washington Saturday night states that the committee on the whisky frauds has a copy in ex-Congressman Ford's handwriting of Ford's letter to President Grant, dated May 30, 1870, in which Ford says of Supervisor McDonald: "He is a man that the Republican papers denounce as being without sense, without truth and common honesty. I tell you this confidentially, having no doubt of its truth. We all hope you will satisfy yourself of the truth of it, if you have any doubts, and do yourself justice and the country a service by squelching him at once." And yet Grant, in giving his sworn testimony in defense of Babcock last month, stated that he had never been informed that McDonald's character was not good. Is this perjury in the chief magistrate? Any grand jury would find a true bill against an obscure citizen on such evidence for perjury.

Last week Gen. Patterson destroyed eight illicit distilleries, five in Henry county, Tenn., and three in Calloway county, Ky., and arrested five of their operators.

The emperor and empress of Brazil arrived at New York Saturday in the steamship Havellius.

Special Telegram to Courier-Journal. Washington, April 14.—The House committee on the Judiciary met this morning and considered the question of a proper return by the sergeant-at-arms to the court which has issued a writ of habeas corpus in the case of Hallet Kilbourne. Hallet Kilbourne is one of the most impudent and shameless of the ring variety, and the courts of the District are in full sympathy with the ring and with him.

The subcommittee, by two to one, reported a direction to the sergeant-at-arms not to produce the body of Kilbourne in court. There was considerable discussion, and numerous precedents were quoted on both sides. The majority report was adopted by a decided majority. Those voting aye were Messrs. Hinton, Ashe, Lord, Hurd, McCreary, Lawrence, and Hoar. The nays were Proctor Knott, Lynde and Frye. The committee will accordingly report a resolution to-morrow directing the sergeant-at-arms not to

OUR WASHINGTON LETTER.

WASHINGTON, D. C. April 15, '76.

FEARFUL RESULT OF GRANTISM.

We have not become so accustomed to the vitiated political and social atmosphere we have been inhaling since Grant has been at the head of the government, that we have got to be indifferent to it. This is, perhaps, the most fearful symptom of the dangerous disease which now afflicts the American body politic. The time was when an officer of the U. S. Government could not hold his place a single day, in the fact of imputation upon his honesty, unless they were met and disproved at once. And no man, in those days, would have dared to wantonly and loosely accuse an official of corruption. When Andrew Jackson became President, it was discovered that Tobias Watkins, 3rd Auditor of the Treasury for many years, had, by a systematic alteration of accounts, succeeded in embezzling $3,000 of Government money. He was at once arrested and sent to prison like any other man accused of felony. Instead of the power of the Government being used to defend him, it was used to convict him. To this mode of dealing with official criminals we must return. It is becoming more certain, every day, that the next Presidential contest will be fought solely on the issue of an honest Administration, and that the party which neglects to nominate a man unmistakably identified with Administrative Reform will be defeated. Nor can any man be elected who fails to carry the States of Connecticut, New York and New Jersey. All over the country, the democrats are discussing these questions with reference to their bearing on the presidential nomination, with great seriousness; involving, as they (the questions) do, the abandonment of all sectional differences in order to attain success.

GRANT ON THE RAGGED EDGE.

The Washington organ of the White House ring, the National Republican, is very much disgusted at the disclosures made by Col. Whitley, implicating Gen. Babcock in the safe-burglary plot, by which an innocent man was to have been sent to State Prison, and coolly remarks, this morning, that the investigations now going on are " tiresome and monotonous." It is to be hoped they will become more and more so for the second round whom the Republican defends, until the investigations get to be "really unbearable, you know." Grant is on the "ragged edge" now. These things are getting a little too close; and it is rumored that he begins to fear impeachment, unless he takes steps to clear himself from all responsibility for the conduct of Babcock and Porter. These two distinguished warriors and statesmen have literally run the government. It is a fact well known here that Grant is sometimes drunk or stupefied with liquor, for days together, and that, at such times, it has been his habit to sign papers brought to him by Babcock or Porter, without knowing their contents, and to issue orders of which he did not know the purport, at the instigation of the above named worthies. It can be proven that persons here have been offered, for certain sums of money, appointments to vacant offices which it was understood were to be obtained in this way, and in this way only, from the President, while under the influence of liquor.

SENATOR MORTON'S WILMINGTON PILGRIMAGE.

It has been published extensively that in compliance with a request from the ex-Union soldiers, and loyalists generally, residing at Wilmington, North Carolina, Senator Morton has consented to pronounce the oration there on Decoration day, May 30th. This mistake might as well be corrected at the outset. The invitation in question came from Gen. Allen Rutherford who was recently dismissed from his position as Third Auditor of the Treasurer, for gross carelessness, or something worse, in allowing a fraudulent claim. For some time past, Rutherford has been engaged in "setting up the pins" for his Mercantile Highness, the Senator from Indiana, in order that the latter may obtain the vote of the Southern delegates to the Cincinnati convention. It does not appear, from Rutherford's letter, that he writes in behalf of any body but himself. It simply states that he, Gen. R., would be pleased if the Senator would consent to deliver the oration on Decoration Day, but omits to mention that anyone else but himself has expressed the same desire. It is almost unnecessary to say that the invitation was eagerly accepted, and that the Presidential aspirant from Indiana will deliver such an oration as will be calculated to intensify the affection which he imagines is borne him by the colored people of the South. He will never have a better opportunity to air his famous blood-smeared under garment than at Wilmington, on the 30th prox.; and it is safe to predict that he will improve it.

REDUCING THE SALARY OF THE PRESIDENT.

after March 4 next; twenty-seven being absent, or preferring not to vote. On Monday last, the Senate refused to consider its previous action, the vote standing, yeas 25, nays 31; so that now the bill goes to the House, which will undoubtedly pass it. The matter was not made a party question by the Senate. Senator Thurman voted in favor of the reduction, while Senator Bayard voted against it. When, subsequently, an acquaintance alluded to his vote, Senator Bayard said: "When the bill increasing the President's salary was before the Senate, several years ago, I voted for it, honestly believing that $25,000 was inadequate to social requirements of the position. Since then, I have not changed my opinion; subsequently, I voted against reduction." There is nothing of the demagogue about Mr. Bayard; and, when it is remembered that he is a possible candidate for the Presidency, his action will appear all the more praiseworthy, as the honest conviction of an honest man. And, by the way, speaking of Mr. Bayard, who is always calm and unimpassioned in his utterances, and who is studiously careful not to give an affront to his brother Senators, it was something of a surprise to his friends, when, goaded on by "Hole-in-the-sky" Boutwell, or "the Groton grocer," as he is sometimes called, the hot blood of indignation mounted to his face, and he hurled back, as wickedly false, the imputation that he had ever, in thought or deed, been untrue to his country. Under the circumstances, however, his indignation was wholly justifiable, and was so regarded by the thronged galleries, which loudly applauded his response to the Massachusetts Senator.

ONE BLACK REIFER CALF.

TAKEN up as a Stray by E. H. Cooper, living near Fordsville, Ky., on the 27th of March, 1876.

ONE BLACK REIFER CALF, with some white spots on its sides, about two years old, marked with a crop of the right ear and swallow-fork in the left. Valued at $5.00. Witness my hand. Mar. 27, 1876. C. W. R. COBB, J. P. O. C. no-13 of the Treasurer, for gross carelessness, or something worse, in allowing a fraudulent claim. For some time past, Rutherford has been engaged in "setting up the pins" for his Mercantile Highness, the Senator from Indiana, in order that the latter may obtain the vote of the Southern delegates to the Cincinnati convention. It does not appear, from Rutherford's letter, that he writes in behalf of any body but himself. It simply states that he, Gen. R., would be pleased if the Senator would consent to deliver the oration on Decoration Day, but omits to mention that anyone else but himself has expressed the same desire. It is almost unnecessary to say that the invitation was eagerly accepted, and that the Presidential aspirant from Indiana will deliver such an oration as will be calculated to intensify the affection which he imagines is borne him by the colored people of the South. He will never have a better opportunity to air his famous blood-smeared under garment than at Wilmington, on the 30th prox.; and it is safe to predict that he will improve it.

after March 4 next; twenty-seven being absent, or preferring not to vote. On Monday last, the Senate refused to consider its previous action, the vote standing, yeas 25, nays 31; so that now the bill goes to the House, which will undoubtedly pass it. The matter was not made a party question by the Senate. Senator Thurman voted in favor of the reduction, while Senator Bayard voted against it. When, subsequently, an acquaintance alluded to his vote, Senator Bayard said: "When the bill increasing the President's salary was before the Senate, several years ago, I voted for it, honestly believing that $25,000 was inadequate to social requirements of the position. Since then, I have not changed my opinion; subsequently, I voted against reduction." There is nothing of the demagogue about Mr. Bayard; and, when it is remembered that he is a possible candidate for the Presidency, his action will appear all the more praiseworthy, as the honest conviction of an honest man. And, by the way, speaking of Mr. Bayard, who is always calm and unimpassioned in his utterances, and who is studiously careful not to give an affront to his brother Senators, it was something of a surprise to his friends, when, goaded on by "Hole-in-the-sky" Boutwell, or "the Groton grocer," as he is sometimes called, the hot blood of indignation mounted to his face, and he hurled back, as wickedly false, the imputation that he had ever, in thought or deed, been untrue to his country. Under the circumstances, however, his indignation was wholly justifiable, and was so regarded by the thronged galleries, which loudly applauded his response to the Massachusetts Senator.

ONE BLACK REIFER CALF.

TAKEN up as a Stray by E. H. Cooper, living near Fordsville, Ky., on the 27th of March, 1876.

REDUCING THE SALARY OF THE PRESIDENT.

after March 4 next; twenty-seven being absent, or preferring not to vote. On Monday last, the Senate refused to consider its previous action, the vote standing, yeas 25, nays 31; so that now the bill goes to the House, which will undoubtedly pass it. The matter was not made a party question by the Senate. Senator Thurman voted in favor of the reduction, while Senator Bayard voted against it. When, subsequently, an acquaintance alluded to his vote, Senator Bayard said: "When the bill increasing the President's salary was before the Senate, several years ago, I voted for it, honestly believing that $25,000 was inadequate to social requirements of the position. Since then, I have not changed my opinion; subsequently, I voted against reduction." There is nothing of the demagogue about Mr. Bayard; and, when it is remembered that he is a possible candidate for the Presidency, his action will appear all the more praiseworthy, as the honest conviction of an honest man. And, by the way, speaking of Mr. Bayard, who is always calm and unimpassioned in his utterances, and who is studiously careful not to give an affront to his brother Senators, it was something of a surprise to his friends, when, goaded on by "Hole-in-the-sky" Boutwell, or "the Groton grocer," as he is sometimes called, the hot blood of indignation mounted to his face, and he hurled back, as wickedly false, the imputation that he had ever, in thought or deed, been untrue to his country. Under the circumstances, however, his indignation was wholly justifiable, and was so regarded by the thronged galleries, which loudly applauded his response to the Massachusetts Senator.

ONE BLACK REIFER CALF.

TAKEN up as a Stray by E. H. Cooper, living near Fordsville, Ky., on the 27th of March, 1876.

REDUCING THE SALARY OF THE PRESIDENT.

after March 4 next; twenty-seven being absent, or preferring not to vote. On Monday last, the Senate refused to consider its previous action, the vote standing, yeas 25, nays 31; so that now the bill goes to the House, which will undoubtedly pass it. The matter was not made a party question by the Senate. Senator Thurman voted in favor of the reduction, while Senator Bayard voted against it. When, subsequently, an acquaintance alluded to his vote, Senator Bayard said: "When the bill increasing the President's salary was before the Senate, several years ago, I voted for it, honestly believing that $25,000 was inadequate to social requirements of the position. Since then, I have not changed my opinion; subsequently, I voted against reduction." There is nothing of the demagogue about Mr. Bayard; and, when it is remembered that he is a possible candidate for the Presidency, his action will appear all the more praiseworthy, as the honest conviction of an honest man. And, by the way, speaking of Mr. Bayard, who is always calm and unimpassioned in his utterances, and who is studiously careful not to give an affront to his brother Senators, it was something of a surprise to his friends, when, goaded on by "Hole-in-the-sky" Boutwell, or "the Groton grocer," as he is sometimes called, the hot blood of indignation mounted to his face, and he hurled back, as wickedly false, the imputation that he had ever, in thought or deed, been untrue to his country. Under the circumstances, however, his indignation was wholly justifiable, and was so regarded by the thronged galleries, which loudly applauded his response to the Massachusetts Senator.

ONE BLACK REIFER CALF.

TAKEN up as a Stray by E. H. Cooper, living near Fordsville, Ky., on the 27th of March, 1876.

REDUCING THE SALARY OF THE PRESIDENT.

after March 4 next; twenty-seven being absent, or preferring not to vote. On Monday last, the Senate refused to consider its previous action, the vote standing, yeas 25, nays 31; so that now the bill goes to the House, which will undoubtedly pass it. The matter was not made a party question by the Senate. Senator Thurman voted in favor of the reduction, while Senator Bayard voted against it. When, subsequently, an acquaintance alluded to his vote, Senator Bayard said: "When the bill increasing the President's salary was before the Senate, several years ago, I voted for it, honestly believing that $25,000 was inadequate to social requirements of the position. Since then, I have not changed my opinion; subsequently, I voted against reduction." There is nothing of the demagogue about Mr. Bayard; and, when it is remembered that he is a possible candidate for the Presidency, his action will appear all the more praiseworthy, as the honest conviction of an honest man. And, by the way, speaking of Mr. Bayard, who is always calm and unimpassioned in his utterances, and who is studiously careful not to give an affront to his brother Senators, it was something of a surprise to his friends, when, goaded on by "Hole-in-the-sky" Boutwell, or "the Groton grocer," as he is sometimes called, the hot blood of indignation mounted to his face, and he hurled back, as wickedly false, the imputation that he had ever, in thought or deed, been untrue to his country. Under the circumstances, however, his indignation was wholly justifiable, and was so regarded by the thronged galleries, which loudly applauded his response to the Massachusetts Senator.

ONE BLACK REIFER CALF.

TAKEN up as a Stray by E. H. Cooper, living near Fordsville, Ky., on the 27th of March, 1876.

REDUCING THE SALARY OF THE PRESIDENT.

after March 4 next; twenty-seven being absent, or preferring not to vote. On Monday last, the Senate refused to consider its previous action, the vote standing, yeas 25, nays 31; so that now the bill goes to the House, which will undoubtedly pass it. The matter was not made a party question by the Senate. Senator Thurman voted in favor of the reduction, while Senator Bayard voted against it. When, subsequently, an acquaintance alluded to his vote, Senator Bayard said: "When the bill increasing the President's salary was before the Senate, several years ago, I voted for it, honestly believing that $25,000 was inadequate to social requirements of the position. Since then, I have not changed my opinion; subsequently, I voted against reduction." There is nothing of the demagogue about Mr. Bayard; and, when it is remembered that he is a possible candidate for the Presidency, his action will appear all the more praiseworthy, as the honest conviction of an honest man. And, by the way, speaking of Mr. Bayard, who is always calm and unimpassioned in his utterances, and who is studiously careful not to give an affront to his brother Senators, it was something of a surprise to his friends, when, goaded on by "Hole-in-the-sky" Boutwell, or "the Groton grocer," as he is sometimes called, the hot blood of indignation mounted to his face, and he hurled back, as wickedly false, the imputation that he had ever, in thought or deed, been untrue to his country. Under the circumstances, however, his indignation was wholly justifiable, and was so regarded by the thronged galleries, which loudly applauded his response to the Massachusetts Senator.

ONE BLACK REIFER CALF.

TAKEN up as a Stray by E. H. Cooper, living near Fordsville, Ky., on the 27th of March, 1876.

REDUCING THE SALARY OF THE PRESIDENT.

after March 4 next; twenty-seven being absent, or preferring not to vote. On Monday last, the Senate refused to consider its previous action, the vote standing, yeas 25, nays 31; so that now the bill goes to the House, which will undoubtedly pass it. The matter was not made a party question by the Senate. Senator Thurman voted in favor of the reduction, while Senator Bayard voted against it. When, subsequently, an acquaintance alluded to his vote, Senator Bayard said: "When the bill increasing the President's salary was before the Senate, several years ago, I voted for it, honestly believing that $25,000 was inadequate to social requirements of the position. Since then, I have not changed my opinion; subsequently, I voted against reduction." There is nothing of the demagogue about Mr. Bayard; and, when it is remembered that he is a possible candidate for the Presidency, his action will appear all the more praiseworthy, as the honest conviction of an honest man. And, by the way, speaking of Mr. Bayard, who is always calm and unimpassioned in his utterances, and who is studiously careful not to give an affront to his brother Senators, it was something of a surprise to his friends, when, goaded on by "Hole-in-the-sky" Boutwell, or "the Groton grocer," as he is sometimes called, the hot blood of indignation mounted to his face, and he hurled back, as wickedly false, the imputation that he had ever, in thought or deed, been untrue to his country. Under the circumstances, however, his indignation was wholly justifiable, and was so regarded by the thronged galleries, which loudly applauded his response to the Massachusetts Senator.

ONE BLACK REIFER CALF.

TAKEN up as a Stray by E. H. Cooper, living near Fordsville, Ky., on the 27th of March, 1876.

REDUCING THE SALARY OF THE PRESIDENT.

after March 4 next; twenty-seven being absent, or preferring not to vote. On Monday last, the Senate refused to consider its previous action, the vote standing, yeas 25, nays 31; so that now the bill goes to the House, which will undoubtedly pass it. The matter was not made a party question by the Senate. Senator Thurman voted in favor of the reduction, while Senator Bayard voted against it. When, subsequently, an acquaintance alluded to his vote, Senator Bayard said: "When the bill increasing the President's salary was before the Senate, several years ago, I voted for it, honestly believing that $25,000 was inadequate to social requirements of the position. Since then, I have not changed my opinion; subsequently, I voted against reduction." There is nothing of the demagogue about Mr. Bayard; and, when it is remembered that he is a possible candidate for the Presidency, his action will appear all the more praiseworthy, as the honest conviction of an honest man. And, by the way, speaking of Mr. Bayard, who is always calm and unimpassioned in his utterances, and who is studiously careful not to give an affront to his brother Senators, it was something of a surprise to his friends, when, goaded on by "Hole-in-the-sky" Boutwell, or "the Groton grocer," as he is sometimes called, the hot blood of indignation mounted to his face, and he hurled back, as wickedly false, the imputation that he had ever, in thought or deed, been untrue to his country. Under the circumstances, however, his indignation was wholly justifiable, and was so regarded by the thronged galleries, which loudly applauded his response to the Massachusetts Senator.

NOTICE.

U. S. Internal Revenue.

SPECIAL TAXES.

May 1, 1876, to April 30, 1877.

The Revised Statutes of the United States, Section 3223, 3247, 3258 and 3259, requires every person engaged in any business, avocation or employment which renders him liable to SPECIAL TAX, To procure and Place Conspicuously in his Establishment or Place of Business a STAMP denoting the payment of said SPECIAL TAX for the Special Tax Year beginning May 1, 1876, before commencing or continuing business after April 30, 1876.

The Taxes embraced within the provision of the Law above quoted, are the following, viz:

Dealers, retail liquor	$200 00
Dealers, wholesale liquor	25 00
Dealers in malt liquor, wholesale	100 00
Dealers in malt liquor, retail	50 00
Dealers in leaf tobacco	25 00
Retail dealers in leaf tobacco	500 00
And on sales of over $1,000, fifty cents for every dollar in excess of $1,000
Dealers in manufactured tobacco	5 00
Manufacturers of stills	50 00
And for each still manufactured	20 00
And for each year manufactured	20 00
Manufacturers of tobacco	10 00
Manufacturers of cigars	10 00
Peddlers of tobacco, first class (more than two boxes or other animals)	50 00
Peddlers of tobacco, second class (two boxes or other animals)	25 00
Peddlers of tobacco, third class (one box or other animal)	15 00
Peddlers of tobacco, fourth class (on foot or public conveyance)	10 00
Brewers of less than 500 barrels	50 00
Brewers of 500 barrels or more	100 00

Any person, so liable, who shall fail to comply with the foregoing requirements will be subject to severe penalties. Persons or firms liable to pay any of the Special Taxes named above must apply to W. T. KING, Deputy Collector of Internal Revenue at Hartford, Ky., and pay for and procure the Special Tax Stamp or Stamps that they need prior to May 1, 1876, and WITHOUT FURTHER NOTICE. D. D. PRATT, Com'r of Int. Rev. Office of Internal Revenue, Washington, D. C., Feb. 1, 1876.

John P. Morton & Co.,
PUBLISHERS,
BOOKSELLERS
and Stationers,
PRINTERS & BINDERS,
156 West Main St., bet. Fourth and Fifth, LOUISVILLE, KY.
no 15-6m

PROFESSIONAL CARDS.

HENRY D. MOHREY, N. M. K. HILL.

McHENRY & HILL.

ATTORNEYS & COUNSELLORS AT LAW

HARTFORD, KY.

Will practice in Ohio and adjoining counties and in the Court of Appeals of Kentucky.

F. P. MORGAN.

ATTORNEY AT LAW,

HARTFORD, KY.

(Office west of courthouse over Hardwick & Nall's store.)

Will practice in inferior and superior courts of this commonwealth.

Special attention given to cases in bankruptcy.

F. P. Morgan is also examiner, and will take depositions everywhere he is ready to oblige all parties at all times.

JESSE E. FOGLE, W. N. SWEENEY.

Hartford, Ky. Owensboro, Ky.

FOGLE & SWEENEY,

ATTORNEYS & COUNSELLORS

AT LAW,

HARTFORD, . . . KENTUCKY.

Will practice their profession in the Ohio county Circuit Court, and in the Court of Appeals of Kentucky.

J. E. Fogle will also practice in the Circuit courts of adjoining counties, and in the interior courts of Ohio county.

OFFICE—West side of Market street near courthouse.

JOHN P. BARRETT,

ATTORNEY AT LAW,

and Real Estate Agent,

HARTFORD, KENTUCKY.

Prompt attention given to the collection of claims. Will buy, sell, lease, or real lands or mineral privileges on reasonable terms. Will write deeds, mortgages, leases, etc., and attend to listing and paying taxes on lands belonging to non-residents.

WM. F. GREGORY.

(County Judge.)

ATTORNEY AT LAW,

HARTFORD, KY.

Prompt attention given to the collection of claims. Office in the courthouse.

WM. HARDWICK & A. T. NALL.

HARDWICK & NALL.

DEALERS IN

DRY GOODS, GROCERIES, HATS, CAPS

BOOTS, SHOES, HARDWARE,

QUEENSWARE, &c.

Which we will sell low for cash, or exchange for country produce, paying the highest market price.

Z. WAYNE GRIFFIN,

HARTFORD, KY.

</

THE HERALD.
IS PUBLISHED
EVERY WEDNESDAY MORNING, IN THE TOWN OF HARTFORD, OHIO COUNTY, KENTUCKY.
—AT—
JOHN P. BARRETT,
AT THE PRICE OF
One Dollar and Fifty cents per Year.
Job work of every description done with neatness and dispatch, at city prices. We have a full line of job types, and will do the printing of the business community.

The price on every copy of THE HERALD is paid at this office. Our terms of subscription are $1.50 per year, invariably in advance.
Should the paper suspend publication, from any cause, during the year, we will refund the money due on subscription, or furnish subscribers for the unexpired term with any paper of the same price they may select.
Advertisements of business men are solicited; except those of saloon keepers and dealers in inferior liquors, which we will not admit to our columns under any circumstances.
All communications and contributions for publication must be addressed to the Editor.
Communications in regard to advertising and job work must be addressed to the Publishers.

With Bates, of Grayson Springs, Missouri, as agent for the Herald, and is authorized to receive subscriptions in that county.

General Local News.

L. BARRETT, LOCAL EDITOR

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 12, 1876.

Rough creek is up and a booming.
Quarterly court began last Monday,
and is still in session.

Rev. W. W. Cook preached to a large and appreciative audience Sunday and Sunday night, at court-house.

Prof. J. E. Haynes and lady, of Dixon, Ky., are spending a few days in town, stopping at the Hartford House.

Miss Jennie Bennett, one of Hartford's bright girls, returned home a few days ago from a visit to Davies county.

Miss Carrie Rowe, one of Hartford's fair and lovely belles, who has been visiting relatives in Greenville, Ky., for several months past, returned home Monday evening.

Col. J. B. Nall, business manager of the Farmer's Home Journal, Louisville, Ky., accompanied by his wife, spent several days in our town last week, visiting friend and relatives.

Wm. L. Rowe, is announced in this issue of the HERALD, as a candidate for the office of Sheriff of this county, subject to the decision of the Democratic Convention. Mr. Rowe is well known to the people of this county, having faithfully filled the office of Common School Commissioner for some time past. If elected we feel that he will discharge the duties of the office with honesty and integrity.

We took a trip through the precincts of Sulphur Springs and Louisville a few days ago, and were surprised at the advancement made by the farmers toward the ensuing crop. A large amount of work has been done during the winter and spring, in the way of clearing, fencing, etc., which we suppose is attributable to the open winter.
Nearly all the farmers have plowed some fur corn, and quite a number have planted a portion of their crop.
Wheat looks better than we have ever seen it at this season of the year, and it is not blasted between this and harvest, there will be an abundant yield of this cereal. Tobacco plants are not damaged, as was supposed, but look better than we ever saw them at this time of the year, and if the weather is favorable from now on, there will be a large amount of this staple set in this county. Peaches are pretty generally killed, but the apple crop and other fruits will be abundant. We are glad to note such a spirit of industry among the farmers in this county. May their efforts be crowned with success.

Call for a Democratic Mass Meeting.
A mass meeting of the Democrats of Ohio county is called to be held at the court house, in Hartford, on Monday, the 1st day of May, to appoint delegates to the Louisville convention, and also to determine as to a county convention for the purpose of nominating a Democratic candidate for sheriff of Ohio county.

By order of Democratic Committee:
TYLER GRIFFIN, Chairman.

Real Estate Transfers Lodged for Record since our last issue.
A. P. Brooks to Jas. A. Hawkins, tract of land on Panther creek, $1750 00
Elizabeth Brooks to Aretus T. Brooks
100 acres on Panther creek, 1800 00
Jonathan Riley to Jas. F. Wilson,
16 acres on Muddy, 160 00
Ben Rhodes & Co. to Elizabeth C.
Bartlett, 20 acres in dist. 11, 300 00
G. W. Patterson to J. W. Tichenor
613 acres on Green River, 640 00
B. W. Kendall to John K. Sorrell, 100 acres on Muddy creek, 516 00
W. F. Gregory, county judge to Baptist church, 60 by 100 of public square in Hartford, Washington St.
Quit claim deed.
W. A. Gordon to Mrs. E. J. Brown, lot 160 in Rockport, 50 00
William Brown to Geo. A. Brown,
160 acres on Mill Run, 1620 00
Geo. A. Brown to John W. Stevens,
100 acres on Hardinsburg road, 1100 00
Catherine Kasinger to A. E. Kirk 15 year's use of dower right in the lands of J. W. Smiley dec'd, 400 00
L. M. Stetler to R. McDonald 121 acres on Rough creek, 400 00
E. W. Paxton to James Jamnagan, 6 acres in dist. No. 8, 55 00

Beaver Dam News.
BEAVER DAM, Ky.,
April 17, 1876.
I find upon perusing the columns of the HERALD that the reporters have all given notice of the disappearance of old Boreas and the weather changed to "mild as when Zephyrus on Flora breathes."

The Beaver Damites are also happy to chronicle the fact that the sun has shone upon us a few days. About the time, however, we intended to lay aside our ulster and don our duster a Ticnann gale visited us and blasted our fond desire.

'Twill soon be time, though, when lovers can frequent their favorite trying place, and thereby spare much fuel for the old folks.

Had not the rains of last week prevented, most all the corn ground would have been broken and corn planted.

Many thousands of pounds of tobacco were delivered here last week. Both factories are crowded to their utmost capacity.

Most every branch of business has improved, and every person seems to have renewed energy.

I have made particular inquiry, and have not heard of a single tobacco plant being killed.

Farmers report a fine prospect for an abundant wheat yield.

Some fruit has been injured, but from present prospects there will be a plenty for all.

Prof. Hoxorton, assisted by his accomplished wife, has opened a school at this place, and is meeting with encouraging success.

While a party of gentlemen were log-rolling near this place, the other day, about the hour of three o'clock they were visited by a shower of copper colored lizards. Upon examination some were found to possess forked tails. We do not consider this a plague sent upon us, by any means; but suppose it was the remainder of the Bath county shower.

Rev. A. C. Caperton delivered two excellent sermons on last Sunday, after which he spoke to the members of his church in the interest of the Baptist Recorder. His discourses are logical, and all would be glad to have him visit us again.

Mr. Rothchilds of Washington, Indiana, is in town visiting his daughter, Mrs. Kuhn.

Mrs. Whently and daughter, of Pinecon, were in town a few days last week.

Miss Rhodes, of Greenville, is visiting her sister of this place.

Miss Lelia Addington is spending a few days with Miss Lida Barnes.

Messrs. Taylor & Gray will ship two car loads of cattle to-night.

Mr. Thomas Stevens will start in a few days with a large drove of cattle for eastern Kentucky. HENRI.

From Luck's Branch.
LUCK'S BRANCH, April 10, '76.
EDITORS HERALD:—Never having seen anything from this part of our county in your valuable paper, I will scribble a few lines for publication, if found worthy.

The wife of Mr. John Keigle, the enterprising merchant at Newville, Ky., died April 10, 1876. Mrs. Keigle was the daughter of James Shackelford, esq., of McLean county, Ky., and a lady loved and admired by all who knew her. This is the second like bereavement of Mr. Keigle in a little over three years. He has the sympathy of the entire community.

There is a difference of opinion as to the condition of tobacco plants. I have been growing tobacco for thirty years, and have never known a failure by plants frosting. There is seed enough sown on beds to make a second stand. I have not sold my last year's crop.

There is a number of peach blooms since the cold weather, but what they will make is very uncertain.

Farmers are breaking corn land; our wives are gardening; the weather fine, everything spring like; wheat is looking well; oats are coming up, but I think will be thin on the ground. ALPHA.

FORD'S SEMINARY, April 11, '76.
EDITOR HERALD: As I have seen nothing from this place in your valuable paper, I will try and let your readers know we still exist.

Owing to the lateness of spring weather, farmers have been kept from farming until the last few days there has been an extraordinary effort put forth. Oats are up, and the wheat crop is looking exceedingly well.

Peaches are not killed.
Tobacco has been selling very well, at from $10 1-2 to $5.00 and $2.00—not quite so profitable now at present.

Tobacco plants were all killed; some have resoured, some are going to risk the unsprouted seed that are in the ground.

Stock hogs and beef cattle are in great demand, but very scarce.

For some unknown cause a great many persons lost their joint meat.
The educational interest in this community is permanent. Three schools in progress—one high school at Ford's Seminary, under the tutor-ship of Prof. John Clark, an experienced teacher of forty years, one of Kentucky's best scholars.

Matrimonial interests are good; the gentlemen have held back till leap year and the ladies have taken advantage of it.

S. E. HAYNES.

GRAYSON COUNTY ITEMS.

News of the County by Our Regular Correspondent.

The senseless attack of the Grayson Journal on our late worthy representative, U. E. Green, appears to have sunk deep into the hearts of our stranger friends, as it is talked about and denounced by those sons of toil as a something to be remembered against the class that are at present running the county paper in Litchfield.

Lamont says it will be the proudest moment of his life when the Ohio county poet and author records him the pleasing task of writing the epitaph of so great a genius; and in view of coming events, he herewith sends the HERALD a specimen, to put away for a sudden emergency. But should Mr. Ashby persist in waiting to see his beloved mother-in-law pass across the river, he says he will practice the poetry of death until an epitaph worthy of the transcendent genius it is doomed to immortalize is written, and even the famous George W. Childs, B. A., will hide his face in shame at his own poetical obituary inferiority:

He has gone, and a star has passed out from amidst us,
Bearing its light to a region of peace,
Helping the meteor's flash, raining from us
To shades where his grandmother's picking her geese.

The heaviest rainfall witnessed in many years, fell over a portion of our county last Thursday, covering level lands to the depth of an inch in less than an hour.

W. R. Haynes, esq., has discontinued the publication of his "Doc.
Brown" romance. Insufficiency of space in the Grayson Journal being the cause.

Mr. B. L. Crawford of Millwood, raised twenty-five bushels of potatoes from one bushel of seed last summer.
Early Rose were the kind planted.

About six weeks ago several families of our citizens concluded to try the Eldorado of the farmer, Kansas, and started accordingly for the land of grasshoppers. All that were able to return have made their appearance among the hills of Grayson, which they say no inducement will ever make them leave again. Kentucky is best, after all.

Before the L. P. & S. W. Railroad went into operation, such a thing as a market for butter and eggs was unknown to Grayson county. Since that time, the amount of this kind of produce shipped over the road to the Louisville, and other markets, from this county, would pay the railroad indebtedness of the county, seven times over, yet we've hundreds in our midst who will growl and growl, over and over again, at the best friend Grayson county ever had, the much-abused railroad.

A passenger on the train to Litchfield, last Monday morning, made the remark, "To-day is my birthday."
A stranger occupying the seat in front overhearing the remark, enquired his age. "Forty-five," was the answer.

"Then," returned the stranger, "we are just the same age, for this is my forty-fifth birthday." After some further conversation, it was discovered that there existed only twenty-five minutes difference in their respective ages.

The marl beds have almost lost their interest to the farmers of Grayson county.

Grayson's pests, with the white spot on their backs, have again put in their appearance.

We may be accused of having licked the Blarney stone, but notwithstanding, we must say the HARTFORD HERALD under the management of Mr. Barrett, is becoming as popular among the Graysonites as it is among the Ohioans.

For space and readability, we think the HARTFORD HERALD stands second to no county paper published in the State of Kentucky, and should be liberally patronized by all true Ohioans, who take a pride in their county's welfare and institutions.

He married in haste and repented at leisure, and now he is studying the life of Job, and taking a respite occasionally, by conning over Baxter's "Saints Rest" and the "Book of Martyrs."

We have a locality in Grayson county that exists in the pleasant cognomen of "Blue Ruin." Classic, ain't it?

We kept watching around the corners of Litchfield lately to see if we could find a lovely maiden with a Grecian bend or a chaste pinback, but alas! they have vanished, we'll see them no more. The pinback has changed to the pin-up before.

Ministers' and Deacons' Meeting of the Davies County Baptist Association.
This body will convene with Buck Creek church, near Livermore, May 16.

ORDER OF EXERCISES.
1. Sermon for criticism, by Rev.
Wm. Stevens.

2. Modern Spiritualism, by Rev.
B. Y. Cundiff.

Darwinism, by Rev. J. M. Peay.

3. Does the divine call of a minister ever terminate in this life? by Rev.
D. E. Yeiser.

5. Does the Holy Spirit ever lead a soul to Christ without the Word? by Rev. A. G. Davis.

6. Are frequent protracted meetings in the same church beneficial or injurious? by Rev. L. C. Tichenor.

7. How far may a soul be enlightened and yet resist conviction and be lost? by Rev. J. D. Arnold.

8. How far may a minister, called of God to preach, devote himself to secular matters without violating his obligations to God? by Rev. T. E.
Richey.

9. Advice to young preachers, how to obtain fields of labor, by Rev. B. F.
Swindler.

10. All ministers and deacons in the bounds of this association not named above, are requested to bring essays on subjects of their own choicing.

The people are requested to turn out en masse, as we expect to have a great time. Dr. A. C. Caperton of the Western Recorder has promised me to try to be there.

T. E. RICHEY, Sec'y.
MASON CREEK, KY., April 15.

Marriage Licenses Issued since our last report.

Luther Brown to Alice Brown.
Lewis M. Ashby to Mary Williams.
James C. Liles to Savilla A. Miller.
Elisha T. Hendrix to Nancy A. Lacer.

Wm. Riley Tichenor to Julia Ann Leach.

J. W. Maddax to Mary Taylor.
Wm. V. Spurrier to Mary C. Gabbert.
Jas. W. McCarty to Sue M. McElroy.
D. F. Wimp to Sophia Thomas.
Milley Neal to Sena Alford.

Business Notices.

Photographs, Only $2.50 per dozen, at the New Gallery. Give One-half the Usual Price. Call soon, as time is short.

Will H. Murrell is our duly authorized agent at Beaver Dam, Ky., to receive subscriptions and advertisements.
He will also receive subscriptions for the Riverside Weekly.

J. Winters & Co.
Have the best display of piece goods for men's wear, to be made to order, ever brought to Louisville. If you wish an elegant suit, made in fashionable style, and at moderate prices, leave your measure at Winter & Co's, Cor. 3rd & Market.

These are not flimsy times, and patched trousers, and turned garments, are the really consistent and natural result. Economical, home-made dresses are now the rule rather than the exception, and serve to show not only the great popular drift, but also the very important part which "Domestic Paper Fashions" sustain in the economy of the household.

Ready Made Clothing.
We recommend the House of J. Winter & Co., Cor. 3d and Market streets, Louisville, in this particular line, because every garment is of their own manufacture, of the best material, made in latest styles, and sold cheap.

A Golden Opportunity.
We have no doubt all of our readers have carefully read the large double-column advertisement of Messrs. Kennedy & Co., Pittsburgh, Pa., Proprietors of the Great Remedy, SEVEN SEALS OR GOLDEN WONDER. The firm proposes to assist their agents in every manner as will bring the great remedy prominently before the people. This they will do by judicial newspaper advertising. Posters, Bills, Show Cards and beautiful Chromos, and each new agent they offer a splendid coin silver hunting case watch to be sent with the first order for the Remedy. Such inducements are rarely offered a second time, and we urge upon our readers the importance of writing to Messrs. Kennedy & Co. at once and secure the agency for this county as it is now open.

It makes no difference whether Belknap is impeached or not, those owing me must pay me at once, as I have to buy my goods for CASH, or on 30 day's time, and am compelled to sell them the same way in order to keep in the trade. When I sell on 30 day's time, I don't mean 3, 6, or 12 months, but mean what I say, and all accounts must be settled at the end of every month, or they will be listed with an officer for collection.

Z. WAYNE GRIFFIN.

Look out for the Red Mark.
Subscribers who see a red mark on the margin of their paper near their names may know that their time has expired. We hope all such will renew at once.

J. F. Hatfield, agent for F. E. Bowen's Superior Grain and Grass-seed Cleaner, will exhibit the same in town this week. We think it to the interest of our farmers and people generally, to call and examine it, as it is superior to anything of the kind now in use.

The New Styles are Out.
And for an elegant outfit at a moderate price, we advise you to leave your measure at the great Merchant Tailoring Establishment of J. Winter & Co., Louisville, cor. 3d & Market. They have the most Magnificent Stock which is all fresh and complete.

The season for having job-work done is now at hand, and we are prepared to do all kind in neat style.

Centennial Styles.
For a bargain in Ready made Clothing, save money by going to J. Winter & Co., Louisville. Their new Spring Styles are now ready, and all their own manufacture.

Farm for Sale.
I desire to sell my farm of 185 acres of land, about two miles North of Hartford. There are about 80 acres cleared and under fence, good dwelling-house and out-houses, three tobacco barns, good stables, cribs &c., a good cistern almost completed, a young orchard of over 100 trees just beginning to bear. There is also a good coal bank within a hundred yards of the house. The coal is the best blacksmith coal ever used in this county. For sale on reasonable terms.
For further particulars, call on
JOHN P. BARRETT,
or G. B. HOCKER.
Hartford, Ky. n8tf.

A Rare Chance.
I have a large and well selected stock of Sheet Music both vocal and instrumental that I will sell at ten cents per sheet, the usual price being 20 to 40 cents. I also have some Small Sheets, which I will sell at five cents each.
This music is suitable for piano, organ, guitar and other instruments. Call at once and secure the greatest bargain ever offered. I also have a well selected stock of school books, literary books, poems and novels, which I will sell at astonishingly low prices. Don't fail to call and examine these goods.
n10tf Z. WAYNE GRIFFIN.

Club Rates.
We will send the Hartford HERALD and the Riverside Weekly, for one year, for the small sum of $3.00, and in addition thereto, each subscriber will get a premium of a splendid Lithograph. The Riverside Weekly, is devoted to Temperance and Literature and is one of the best family papers we know of. Subscribe at once.

Premiums.
For every new subscriber furnished by a lady, we will give her choice of any of the nice music either vocal or instrumental, found in the large assortment kept in Z. W. Griffin's drug store.

J. W. Davis informs the public that he is located on the Hartford and Barrett's ferry road, and is prepared to do a general business of horse trading. Will buy, swap or sell. Give him a call. n-13-tf

"Music hath charms to soothe a savage," read a rock or burst a cabbage. Plenty of sheet music at Z.
Wayne Griffin's drug store, but it is not of the strong kind described in the above stanza. Call and examine it.

Perils by Land.
Within the limits of our own country are to be found almost all the variations of climate known to the habitable globe.
But extensive as is our domain, the locomotive running at almost lightning speed, conveys the traveller in a few hours from the healthy mountain district to the agreeable plain, and even from the sunny groves of the south to the ice bound shores of the northern lakes. In making these rapid journeys the travellers are subjected to those severe climatic influences so productive of sickness and disease. It is therefore of vital importance that he should be provided with a remedial agent that will not only cure, but likewise prevent sudden attacks of disease. The SEVEN SEALS OR GOLDEN WONDER, which is a Counter Irritant, a Disinfectant, a Diffusive Stimulant, a Anodyne, a Nervine and a Tonic, is a sure prevention and a no less effectual cure of Fevers, and Ague, Diarrhoea, Dysentery, and all other ailments to which travellers are especially liable.
No traveller should fail to provide himself with a supply of this valuable remedy before starting upon his journey.

S. D. WALKER, A. C. HUBBARD.

WALKER & HUBBARD, ATTORNEYS AT LAW
AND REAL ESTATE AGENTS, HARTFORD, KENTUCKY.
nol 1a

Warren County Bonds Embellished and Surreptitiously Sold in Louisville.

[Bowling Green Democrat.]
It becomes our painful duty to record a state of facts that will at once startle and surprise the people of our county, and which is another instance in which the rectitude of human conduct has been overpowered, and the obligation to faithfully discharge a high public trust has been violated—a painful illustration of the language of holy writ, which says, "the love of money is the root of all evil." For some two or three weeks past, we are informed, there have been suspicious existing that Mr. J. B. Clark, the clerk of the Warren County Court, who has heretofore, as far as we know, enjoyed the entire confidence of the people of this county, was engaged in embezzling some bonds belonging to this county, of which he was the custodian. Some time ago, this county had printed $40,000 worth of bonds, which were signed by the county judge, H.
K. Thomas, and the county clerk, Mr.
J. B. Clark, in accordance with the provisions of the law under which they were issued. The county judge, H.
K. Thomas, sold, as ordered by the Board of Magistrates of this county, $33,000 worth of said bonds, and left the other $7,000 worth in the hands of the county clerk, Mr. J. B. Clark, for safe-keeping. A short time since it was ascertained that Warren-county bonds were being offered for sale in the Louisville market, when no such bonds had been ordered sold by proper authorities. The sales were being effected under suspicious circumstances.
Parties residing there wrote to parties living in Bowling Green, making inquiries concerning the matter. This led to an investigation, which developed the fact that the custodian, Mr.
J. B. Clark, had none of the $7,000 worth of bonds in his possession.—A portion of said bonds have been found in the hands of purchasers and identified, and the statement made that they were purchased from J. B. Clark. We are informed that, when the bonds were demanded of him, he denied that Judge Thomas has ever placed them in his possession.

Judge Thomas went to Louisville
this week to investigate the matter, and brought one of the bonds back to Bowling Green, and a great many of Mr. Clark's letters, in his correspondence with brokers for the sale of bonds, which letters would indicate he had been doing extensive business in that line. A warrant was issued and placed in the hands of the sheriff for the arrest of Mr. Clark on yesterday, but as he had absented himself from the city on Thursday last, up to this writing the process has not been executed. We have given the facts as we learned them from the county attorney, Mr.
Crooksey. We deplore the whole matter, but hold ourselves ready to give to the public facts in the case, should there be any further developments.

Announcements.

For Congress.
We are authorized to announce
Hon. IGNATIUS A. SPALDING, of Union county, as a candidate for Congress in the Second District of Kentucky, to succeed Hon. John Young Brown. Subject to the decision of a Democratic District Convention.

For Judge Criminal Court.
We are authorized to announce Hon.
Geo. W. RAY, of Owensboro, as a candidate for Judge of the Criminal Court, recently established by the General Assembly of Ky., embracing the counties of Hardin, Meade, Breckinridge, Hancock, Davies, Ohio and Grayson. Election, August 1876.

We are authorized to announce Hon.
JOHN ALLEN MURRAY, of Breckenridge county, as a candidate for Judge of the Criminal Court, recently established by the General Assembly of Kentucky embracing the counties of Hardin, Meade, Breckenridge, Hancock, Davies, Ohio and Grayson. Election August 1876.

WILLIAM F. GREGORY, of Ohio county is a candidate for Judge of the Criminal Court of the 5th Judicial District of Kentucky. Election, August, 1876.

For Sheriff.
We are authorized to announce STEPHEN WOODWARD as candidate for Sheriff of Ohio county. Election August 1876.

W. L. ROWE is a candidate for Sheriff of Ohio county, subject to the decision of the Democratic Convention.

VIRGIL P. ADDINGTON
DEALER IN DRY GOODS AND GROCERIES.

Boots and Shoes, Clothing, Cassimeres and Trimmings a specialty. Best brands of Jeans always on hand. I will sell for cash, wool, feathers, eggs or butter. Will also cut and make clothing in the latest style and on the most reasonable terms. Remember the place—Market street, next door to Hartford House. n2-n1-6-m

L. F. WOERNER.
HARTFORD, KENTUCKY
Repairing neatly and promptly done.

BETH THOMAS CLOCKS.

If you want a good clock at a moderate price, send for our new illustrated price list of Beth Thomas clocks. Clocks securely packed and sent to any address at our risk on receipt of price and fifty cents additional for express charges. Money may be sent safely by registered letter or express.

C. P. BARNES & BRO.,
Jewellers, Main st., bt. 6th & 7th, Louisville, Ky.

JUST FROM THE EAST!

AGRICULTURAL.

Horse Stables.

The breathing of pure air is necessary to the existence and the health of man and beast. It is comparatively lately that this has been admitted, even in the management of our best stables. They have been close and hot, and foul, instead of airy and cool and wholesome.

If there is a loft above the stable, the ceiling should be plastered, or tacked paper placed between the floors, in order to prevent the foul air from penetrating to the hay above, and injuring both its taste and its wholesomeness.

If the stable is closed, the air will not only be hot, but foul. The breathing of every animal contaminates it; and when in the course of the night, with every aperture stopped it passes again through the lungs, the blood can not undergo its proper and healthy change; digestion will not be so perfectly performed, and all the functions of life are injured. Let the owner of a valuable horse think of his passing twenty or twenty-two out of twenty-four hours in this debilitating atmosphere. Nature does wonders in enabling every animal to accommodate itself to the situation in which it is placed; and the horse that lives in the stable-oven suffers less from it than would scarcely be conceived possible, but he does not and can not possess the power and hardihood which he would acquire under other circumstances.

The air of the improperly close and heated stable is still contaminated by the substances gathered there, which rapidly ferment and give out stimulating and unwholesome vapors. When a person first enters an ill-managed stable, and especially early in the morning, he is annoyed, not only by the heat of the confined air, but by a pungent smell, resembling hartshorn; and can he be surprised at the inflammation of the eyes, and the chronic cough, and the disease of the lungs, by which the animal, who has been all night shut up in this vitiated atmosphere, is often attacked; or if glanders and farcy should occasionally break out in such stables?

Let's Give the Farmer a Rest.

A correspondent of a valuable exchange talks to the point, as follows: "As I am somewhat of a reading man, also a man of very tender feeling, I wish, through your columns, to make a few remarks, which I hope will be the means of letting the farmer have one day's rest. You never look at a paper but what some editor, doctor, lawyer, mechanic, vagabond, loafer, or somebody else, has a column of advice to the farmer. If it is a rainy day, he must be in his shop stocking plows and hoes; if a clear day, must plow, split rails, build fences, and burn logs; if cold, must cut and haul wood. And so it is from day to day—the poor farmer must toil and be dogged from morn till night by a set of town loafers that do not know, or pretend not to know, how to plant a hill of peas. These smart men, that load the farmer with so much wholesome advice, will walk for miles around this town to find a negro to plant a row of beans or cut enough stove-wood for their wives to get dinner with, and then pay him off with 'Much oblige to you,' or a drink.

"Now in conclusion, I would say to those men who 'know so much about farming,' and preach so much and practice so little, to try the boot on for about four years, and I think the country will be a much better condition."

The habitual use of celery is more beneficial to us than is commonly supposed. A writer who is familiar with its virtues, says: "I have known many men, and women, too, who from various causes had become so much affected by nervousness that when they stretched out their hands they shook like aspen leaves on windy days, and by a moderate daily use of the blanched footstalks of celery as salad, they became as strong and steady in limb as other people. I have known some so nervous that the least annoyance put them in a state of agitation, and they were in constant perplexity and fear, who were also effectually cured by a moderate daily use of blanched celery as a salad at meal time. I have known others cured of palpitation of the heart. Everyone engaged in work weakening to the nerves should use celery daily in the season, and onions in its stead when not in season."

Help Your Wives.

Farmers are too apt to forget the inconvenience they are subjected to in the discharge of their duties indoors. They remodel and repair their gins, houses, stables and farm implements, as often as their own convenience and profit indicates, and buy new implements in the same way; they see the importance of all this as they engage in their daily vocations. Are they as anxious that their wives should be equally accommodated in their household duties? Are not the labors of the wife or daughters often increased, more than double, for want of a cooking stove, a better pump or cistern, or well fixture, easier access to the kitchen, pantry and wood house. Have husbands and fathers seriously considered these points? Are they determined to impose unwise hardships upon their wives and daughters? We think not. It is only thoughtlessness on their part. Will not every delinquent husband arouse himself on the subject and show the world that he duly appreciates the relations of his affectionate companions and aid them to the extent of his abilities in their household duties.—Farmer's Advocate.

The best farmer is he who raises the best and largest crops on the smallest surface of land at the least expense, and at the same time annually improves his soil; who understands his business and attends to it; whose manure heap is large and always increasing; whose corn crib and smoke house are at home; who is surrounded by all the necessities and comforts of life; who studies his profession, and tries to reach perfection in it; who keeps a strict account of his expenses as well as his income, and who knows how he stands at the end of each season. Such a farmer, in nine times out of ten, will succeed, and not only make farming a pleasant but profitable occupation. Try it and see how it is yourself, reader.

If cookery were reduced down to rule, so that persons could follow recipes with the same certainty of success, due to accuracy, with which the student pursues the instructions laid down in his text-book of chemical analysis, it is presumable that any person could produce eatable and healthy dishes, but nothing further from the truth. Let the reader ask any successful cook how she or he made such and such a compound, the chances are strongly that no satisfaction can be given. "Practice" is probably stated as the reason, or "experience or luck." Let him turn to any so-called cookery book, and we would be willing to wager that nine cases out of ten the recipes for the most delicate cake and pastry contain greater inaccuracy than any formula extant for mixing mud and concrete. What does a teaspoonful mean, heaped up or even with the rim? Or a teaspoonful? What size teaspoon? How much is a pinch, or a handful, or a pennyworth? There is absolutely no standard system of measures conscientiously followed; and hence a woman will gauge her ingredients by the same grab with the same unquestioning faith in the accuracy of the combination that she reposes in the fact that the distance from the tip of her nose to the end of her finger is precisely and infallibly one yard.—Scientific American.

GREEN TOMATO PIE.—Take about half a dozen of tomatoes about the size of a walnut hull; wash them, if you want clean pie, slice them in a dish and pour half a teaspoonful of sharp vinegar over them and let them sit until you want to make your pie; put in one layer of tomatoes, then strew a little flour over them and a pinch of cinnamon and sugar, and I put a tablespoonful of molasses to each pie if I have it, and about a half teaspoonful of water to each pie. Try them. Some of our folks think there is no better pie than good tomato pie.—Cor. Ctn. Times.

There are two things that always pay even in this not over remunerative existence. They are working and waiting. Either is useless without the other. Both united are invincible, and inevitably triumphant. He who waits without working is simply a man yielding to sloth and despair. He who works without waiting is fitful in his strivings, and misses results by impatience. He who works steadily may have a long journey before him, but at its close he will find his reward.

GOOD WHITEWASH.—Slack the lime in the usual way. Mix one gill of flour with a little cold water, taking care to beat out all the lumps; then pour on it boiling water enough to thicken to the consistency of common starch when boiled for use. Pour it, while hot, into a bucket of slacked lime, and add one pound of whitening. Stir all well together. A little blue water, made by squeezing the indigo mixed with water improves it.

BEWARE OF BENZINE.—From the facility with which it removes grease spots from fabrics, this substance has come to be regarded almost as a household indispensable. But few persons, however, realize the explosive character of benzine or the danger attending the careless handling of the liquid. Being one of the most volatile and inflammable products resulting from the distillation of petroleum, it vaporizes with great rapidity, so that the contents of a four-ounce vial, if overturned, would render the air of a moderate sized room highly explosive. The greatest care should be exercised in handling this substance, in proximity to fire, and it is important to remember that the vapor escaping from an uncorked bottle will cause a flame to leap over a space of several feet.

RAILROAD TIME TABLE

Louisville, Paducah & Southwestern.
The down train for Paducah leaves Louisville, daily except Sunday at 3:30 a.m. and arrives at:
Cecilian Junction at 11:23 a.m.
Spring Springs at 12:00 p.m.
Leitchfield at 1:03 "
Milwau at 1:18 "
Beaver Dam at 2:53 "
Rockport at 3:20 "
Owensboro Junction at 3:47 "
Greenville at 4:05 "
Nortonville Junction at 5:00 " Paducah at 9:00 "
The up train for Louisville leaves Paducah daily except Sunday at 6:45 a.m. and arrives at:
Nortonville Junction at 10:25 a.m.
Greenville at 11:33 "
Owensboro Junction at 11:55 "
Rockport at 12:25 p.m.
Beaver Dam at 12:55 "
Leitchfield at 2:55 "
Trayon Springs at 3:05 "
Big Clifty at 3:20 " Cecilian Junction at 4:00 " Louisville at 6:20 "
Hartford is connected with the railroad at Beaver Dam by stage line once a day.
These trains connect with Elizabethton at Cecilian, with Owensboro at Owensboro Junction, and with Evansville, Henderson and Nashville at Nortonville.
B. F. MURRELL, Superintendent.

Evansville, Owensboro &amp; Nashville.

The Mail and Accommodation trains are run by the following time-table:
MAIL.
Leaves Owensboro at 9:00 a.m.
Sutherland's at 9:35 "
Crown's at 9:55 "
Lewis' at 10:10 "
Riley's at 10:22 "
Tichenor's at 10:35 "
Livermore at 10:45 "
Leland at 10:55 "
Stroud's at 11:10 "
S. Carrollton at 11:18 "
Owensboro Jun. at 11:30 "
Arrives Owensboro at 12:30 p.m.
Sutherland's at 3:10 "
Crown's at 3:20 "
Lewis' at 3:35 "
Riley's at 3:50 "
Tichenor's at 4:05 "
Livermore at 4:20 "
Leland at 4:35 "
Stroud's at 4:50 "
S. Carrollton at 5:24 "
L.P.A.M. Dep. 5:30 "
Arrives Owensboro at 10:25 a.m.
Sutherland's at 1:10 "
Crown's at 1:20 "
Lewis' at 1:35 "
Riley's at 1:50 "
Tichenor's at 2:05 "
Livermore at 2:20 "
Leland at 2:35 "
Stroud's at 2:50 "
S. Carrollton at 3:24 "
L.P.A.M. Dep. 3:30 "

Trains run daily, Sundays excepted.
R. S. THURLETT, Gen'l Manager.

R. G. MERRILL, S. J. HART.
MERRILL & HART,
MERCHANT TAILORS,
No. 172 Main Street, between Fifth and Sixth,
LOUISVILLE, KY.

ESTLEY ORGANS

New and Beautiful Styles for 1876.
In Power, Variety of Effect, Purity and Sweetness of Tone, as well as high Quality of Material, Workmanship and Durability the ESTLEY ORGANS stand unrivaled. More than 60,000 are in use in Families, Churches, Schools, etc.

Send for Illustrated Catalogue.

Prices Low for Cash or Easy Payments.
D. H. BALDWIN & CO., 138 West 4th Street, Cincinnati.
General Western Agents, Estley Cottage Organs, Decker Brothers and Ohio Valley Piano Co.'s Pianos.

JAS. A. THOMAS, GEO. A. PLATT.
JAS. A. THOMAS & CO.
HARTFORD, KY.
Dealers in staple and fancy

DRY GOODS,

Notions, Fancy Goods, Clothing, Boots and Shoes, Hats and Caps. A large assortment of these goods kept constantly on hand, and will be sold at the very lowest cash price.

JOHN P. TRACY & SON.
UNDERTAKERS,
HARTFORD, KY.

Manufacturers and dealers in all kinds of wooden coffins, from the finest rose wood casket to the cheapest pine coffin.
All kinds of coffin trimmings kept on hand and for sale.
Keep a fine hearse always ready to attend funerals free of charge to our patrons.

Wagons and Buggies, constantly on hand or made to order. Particular attention given to plow stocking.

B. P. BERRYMAN,
Fashionable Tailor,
HARTFORD, KY.

Cuts, Pants and Vests cut, made and repaired to the best style at the lowest prices.

FIRST New Goods OF THE SEASON,

WM. H. WILLIAMS,
HARTFORD, KY.

Takes pleasure in announcing to the citizens of Hartford and Ohio county that he is

Receiving Daily,

THE LATEST NOVELTIES

IN

DRY GOODS,

Gents' and Boys' Clothing,

Hats, Caps,

BOOTS &amp; SHOES,

Hardware, Queensware.

Staple and

FANCY GROCERIES,

Also dealer in

Leaf Tobacco,

I will sell very low for cash, or exchange for all kinds of country produce. My motto is "Quick sales and small profits." not 17

John P. Tracy & Son,
Wagon Makers
AND PLOW STOCKERS.

We do not like to blow our own trumpet so we have engaged our printer to do it for us. The likeness is strikingly, if not entirely accurate. It will be noticed that he is blowing very hard, so much so that the photographer became alarmed for his personal safety, fearing that the printer might burst asunder and demolish everything within range, but the printer assured him that he could not blow on Tracy & Son's work too hard. They could stand a great deal of wind, and in that he was right. If our work will not bear examination we would not want it talked about.

$5 to $20 per day at home. Samples & Co., Portland, Maine.

J. F. YAGER,
Sole and Livery Stable,
HARTFORD, KY.

I desire to inform the citizens of Hartford and vicinity that I am prepared to furnish Saddle and Harness Stock, Buggies and conveyances of all kinds on the most reasonable terms. Horses taken to feed or board by the day, week or month. A liberal share of patronage solicited.

MASTER COMMISSIONER'S NOTICE

Andrew Crow's Adm'r. Plaintiff } Equity.
Against
Andrew Crow's Heirs, Def'ts }

All persons having claims against the estate of Andrew Crow, deceased, are requested to produce the same, properly proven, to the undersigned Master Commissioner of the Ohio Circuit Court, at his office in Hartford, Kentucky, on or before the 15th day of April, next.

E. R. MURRELL, M. C. O. C. C.

n-4-3-n

MASTER COMMISSIONER'S NOTICE

Morton Hatcher's Adm'r. Plt. } Equity.
Against
Morton Hatcher's Heirs Dft's }

All persons having claims against the estate of Morton Hatcher deceased, are requested to produce the same, properly proven, to the undersigned Master Commissioner of the Ohio Circuit Court, at his office in Hartford, Kentucky, on or before the 15th day of April, next, or they will be forever barred.

E. R. MURRELL,

Master Commissioner Ohio County.

March 18th, 1876.

MASTER COMMISSIONER'S NOTICE

Titus Bennett, Adm'r. Plaintiff } Equity.
Against
Titus Bennett's Heirs, Def'ts }

All persons having claims against the estate of Titus Bennett, deceased, are requested to produce the same, properly proven, to the undersigned Master Commissioner of the Ohio Circuit Court, at his office in Hartford, Kentucky, on or before the 15th day of April, next, or they will be forever barred.

E. R. MURRELL,

Master Commissioner Ohio C. C.

n-4-3-n.

MASTER COMMISSIONER'S NOTICE

Wm. Duke Sr's, Executors Plt. } Equity.
Against
B. B. Sullenger's Adm'r. &c. Dft's }

All persons having Claims against the Estate of Burch B. Sullenger deceased, are requested to produce the same, properly proven, to the undersigned, Master Commissioner of the Ohio Circuit Court, at his office in Hartford, Kentucky, on or before the 1st day of May next, or they will be forever barred.

E. R. MURRELL,
Master Commissioner Ohio C. C.
March 23d, 1876. n12-2m

GEO. KLEIN JNO. M. KLEIN
GEORGE KLEIN & BRO.,
HARTFORD, KY.,
—IMPORTERS AND DEALERS IN—

PURE IRON STONE CHINA,

White, Brown and Yellow Ware.

We also keep on hand a full and well selected stock of GLASSWARE LAMPS & LANTERNS.

OUR ASSORTMENT OF HARDWARE IS COMPLETE

—CONSISTING OF—

Locks, Bolts, Wrought and Cast Strap and "Y" Hinges, Axes, Hatchets, Butcher Knives, Table Cutlery of all styles, a full assortment of Spoons, Hand Belts, Cow Bells, Shovels, Spades, Forks, Garden Tools, Nails of all kinds and sizes, Screws and Files.

We keep a full line of Carpenter's Tools Braces and Bits, Planes, Chisels, Drawing Knives, Wrenches, &c., &c. Also Stoves of all sorts and sizes. We keep a full line of ## Tinware of our own Manufacture.

We offer these goods for sale at prices as low and liberal as can be found in any market city or country. no-12-17

THE NEW "DOMESTIC,"

A DOUBLE THREAD LOOK-STITCH MACHINE.

It contains all the virtues of the Light-Running "DOMESTIC," including the Automatic Tension, which was and is the best in use. It is a new and improved PATENT HARDENED CONICAL BEARINGS on both the Machine and Stand.

Our new and old ideas, worked out with brand new Machinery and Tools at our own works, in the city of New York, New Jersey, have given us a standard of MECHANICAL EXCELLENCE. Minimum of Friction, Maximum of Durability, and range of work, never before reached in the Sewing Machine world.

TO THIS STATEMENT AND THE MACHINE ITSELF

We invite the attention of all, especially those having high mechanical skill or observation. N. B.—All Machines fully warranted.

DOMESTIC SEWING MACHINE CO.,

New York and Chicago.

LADIES, USE "DOMESTIC" PAPER FASHIONS.

GOLD AND SILVER WATCHES.

Exact Size of Our $15 Watches

PRICE $15.—J. HARNES & BROS., cor. 5th & 6th Sts., Louisville, Ky.

All for One Dollar.

Ten elegant Sheets of Choice Music arranged for the Piano Forte will be sent by mail on receipt of one dollar, (post paid) or single copies at 15 cents each. They can also be ordered through any News Dealer in the United States.

Happier Days.—Instrumental.—Tom Brown. Why can I not forget?—Charles. Far Over the Waves.—Mayfield. High Life.—Waltz. No one. Down where the Violets grow.—Western. When Old Jackson had his Day.—Western. The Grand Old East.—Charles. The College Quickstep.—Stodart. There's a Letter in the Candle.—Stodart. Do you Really think he Did? Address orders to Benz. W. Harnock, Publisher, 355 Third Avenue, New York. vol2 n10 10k

ROYAL INSURANCE COMP'NY OF LIVERPOOL.

Security and Indemnity.

CAPITAL,—$10,000,000 GOLD.

CASH ASSETS, OVER $12,000,000 GOLD

CASH ASSETS IN U. S., $1,837,934 GOLD

Losses paid without discount, refer to 12th edition of Company's policy.

BARDEE & CASTLEMAN, General Agents, Louisville, Kentucky.

BARRETT & BROS., Agents, HARTFORD, KY.

SEND 25c. to G. P. ROWELL & CO., N. Y. for Pamphlet of 100 pages, containing lists of 3000 newspapers, and estimates showing cost of advertising.

HARTFORD HOUSE,
L. J. LYON, Propr.
HARTFORD, KY.

I have recently rented the above House, and have furnished it in elegant style, and am sure that men will find it to their advantage to stop with me, as the

Hartford House

is situated in the business portion of town.

Nice rooms can be furnished in which to display their samples.

My table will at all times be provided with the best eating the market affords, and every attention will be paid to those who may please to give me their patronage.

A Good Feed Stable

is connected with the House, and stock can be well provided for.

Respectfully,
L. J. LYON.

BIG CLIFTY HOTEL,

BIG CLIFTY, KY.

This hotel is situated on the Louisville, Paducah and Southwestern Railroad, and the day train from Paducah to Louisville stops here for dinner. Ample time is given passengers to eat, and a first-class dinner is furnished for only 50 cents.

SAMUEL GOODMAN, Prop.

MILLWOOD HOTEL,

MILLWOOD, KY.

H. K. WELLS, - - - Propr.

The day train from Louisville to Paducah stops for dinner at this place. Passengers will find a good dinner for the small sum of 50 cents. The trains stop long enough to give passengers sufficient time to eat.

BEAVER DAM HOTEL,

BEAVER DAM, KY.

J. POYNER - - - Proprietor.

This Hotel is situated on the Louisville, Paducah and Southwestern Railroad. Passengers for Hartford on the East bound train will find ample time for eating before going to Hartford. A first-class dinner is furnished for 50 cents. Sample rooms furnished to commercial men.

BIBLES AND TESTAMENTS

—AT COST—

A handsome assortment of Bibles and Testaments from the ## American Bible Society

in the Depository at V. P. ANNISTOWN'S. These books are sold at actual cost, and no one need be without the Scripture, as he has

Cheap Bibles for Donation

to those not able to buy. Call and examine them.

RIVERSIDE WEEKLY

An eight-page literary, family and temperance journal, and is the nearest and prettiest journal in the South. It circulates in nearly every State in the United States, and has regular correspondents throughout the country. Among its contributors we mention a few who are well known to the reading public, viz:

Dr. H. A. M. Henderson, Superintendent Public Instruction of Kentucky; T. S. Arthur, editor of Arthur's Home Magazine, Philadelphia, Pa.; Dr. J. K. Buchanan, author of Buchanan's System of Anthropology, Louisville, Ky.; Mrs. Agnes Leonard Hill, Chicago, Ill.; Mrs. Russell Kavanaugh, Louisville, Ky.; besides the regular corps of experienced editors.

From the purity of the matter published in its columns, together with the great variety of the name, it is one of the best family journals in the country.

AGENTS WANTED EVERYWHERE

To whom liberal cash commissions will be paid. Splendid lithograph engraving to each annual subscriber, with many varied and valuable club premiums, extending from gold sleeve buttons, sewing machines and organs to a $600 piano.

TERMS.

Single copies, one year.....$2 00

Six copies, one year.....1 80

Ten copies, or over, one year.....1 75

Address N. F. THOMPSON,

Editor and Proprietor, Louisville.

Remit by postage money order, draft or registered letter.

New Goods! New Goods!

Just received, a large and complete stock of Fall and Winter goods, consisting of DRY GOODS, CLOTHING, BOOTS, SHOES, HATS, SHAWLS, BLANKETS, NOTIONS &c.

A complete stock of

LADIES DRESS GOODS

And everything kept in a first-class dry goods house.

GIVE US A CALL.

No trouble to show our goods.

L. ROSENBERG & BRO.

N. B.—Highest market price paid for country produce.

no15f.

J. T. CARSON. R. J. DANIEL.

HARRY BRIDGES, —WITH—

CARSON, DANIEL &amp; CO.,

WHOLESALE DEALERS IN

STAPLE AND FANCY GROCERIES.

No. 299, Main Street, bet. Eighth and Ninth,

LOUISVILLE, KY.